

I pay for Satellite because the regular radio is not what I want to listen to. They do not have the stations. I feel that government should stay out of letting the NAB dictate what I listen to. Tell them to improve their programs if they want to compete.